ATTORNEY GENERAL OF WASHINGTON
Civil Rights Division
800 Fifth Avenue, Suite 2000
Seattle, WA 98104
(206) 464-7744

1 I, Deborah Gonzales, hereby state and declare as follows:

2 1. I am over eighteen years of age, have personal knowledge of and am
3 competent to testify about the matters herein.

4 2. I am the Administrative Services Manager with the Washington
5 State Human Rights Commission (Commission). I am also the Commission's 6 Records Custodian.

7 3. The Commission receives and investigates individual complaints of 8 discrimination alleging conduct in violation of the Washington Law Against 9 Discrimination, including complaints of employment discrimination. The
10 Commission maintains a searchable, electronic database of the complaints it
11 receives.

12 4. I directed a search of the Commission's records for any complaints
13 received about the Union Gospel Mission of Yakima (UGM) since 2014 and prior
14 to UGM filing this lawsuit.

15 5. Since 2014 and prior to UGM filing the present lawsuit, the 16 Commission received three complaints regarding UGM. The same individual
17 filed all three complaints. The first complaint was received on June 4, 2014, the 18 second complaint was received on February 24, 2015, and the third complaint
19 was received on June 25, 2015. No complaint alleged employment discrimination
20 based on UGM's religious beliefs.
21
22

1           6.     The June 4, 2014, complaint alleged that UGM discriminated on the
2 basis of disability and that UGM retaliated against complainant. The Commission
3 determined that the complainant suffered no adverse employment action and did
4 not oppose an unfair practice. Consequently, the Commission made a finding of 5 no reasonable cause to believe an unfair practice occurred and closed the matter.
6 True and correct copies of the Commission's "no reasonable cause"
7 determination and memorandum are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

8           7.     The February 24, 2015, complaint alleged that UGM discriminated
9 on the basis of sex by compensating male employees, including the complainant,
10 with room and board only, while providing female employees with monetary
11 compensation in addition to room and board. The Commission's investigation
12 revealed that the complainant was not an employee of UGM, but rather an unpaid,
13 live-in volunteer, who was required to volunteer as a resident of UGM's shelter.
14 As a result, the Commission made a finding of no reasonable cause to believe
15 that an unfair practice had occurred in violation of the Washington Law Against 16 Discrimination and closed the matter. True and correct copies of the 17 Commission's "no reasonable cause" determination and memorandum are
18 attached hereto as Exhibit B.

19           8.     The June 25, 2015, complaint alleged that UGM retaliated against
20 the complainant by terminating his employment for filing the February 24, 2015,
21 sex discrimination complaint. However, the complainant confirmed to a
22

1 Commission investigator that he continued to be a UGM volunteer and continued
2 to reside at the UGM shelter. The Commission made a finding of no reasonable
3 cause and closed the matter. True and correct copies of the Commission's "no
4 reasonable cause" determination and memorandum are attached hereto as 5 Exhibit C.

6 9. After UGM filed this lawsuit, the Commission received an intake
7 questionnaire from an individual who alleged that her contract was not renewed
8 because of her religious beliefs as a Catholic and due to "the lawsuit." The 9 Commission did not investigate that complaint because it does not have 10 jurisdiction over employment discrimination complaints submitted by 11 independent contractors. True and correct copies of this intake questionnaire and 12 the Commission's response regarding its jurisdiction are attached hereto as 13 Exhibit D.

14 10. I have inquired with Commission staff who have served at the 15 agency since 2000. No one is aware of any particular instance that the 16 Commission has, by regulation or ruling, found an employment practice to be 17 appropriate for the practical realization of equality of opportunity between the 18 sexes pursuant to RCW 49.60.180(3).

19 11. The Commission has no present or ongoing investigation into UGM,
20 and has never investigated UGM for alleged employment discrimination based
21 on UGM's religious beliefs.
22

1 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of
2 Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

WASHINGTON STATE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

CASE MEMORANDUM

TO: Commissioners
FROM: Kenia Rios
DATE: July 17, 2014
CASE NAME: White, Tim v Yakima Union Gospel Mission
CASE #: 39EDZ-0851-13-4
EEOC #: 38G-2014-00630

---

1. I recommend closure of the above case based on a finding that: there is no reasonable cause to conclude that discrimination took place, based on RCW 49.60.240(1).
2. The following information supports the recommendation: Complainant alleges discrimination in employment based on disability and retaliation.
3. Complainant stated that the Director has been treating him differently and created a hostile work environment for him. Complainant stated that Respondent threatened to take his position away because he was not able to see very well due to his disability and being able to see the safety area where women and children are is one of his job duties. However, Complainant has not been removed from his position. Complainant alleges that since he refused to open people's U.S. mail for Respondent, which he believes to be illegal, the Director has singled him out and created a hostile environment for him.
4. Complainant's claim does not meet the legal standard necessary to support an element of a discrimination claim based on disability and retaliation. There is no evidence to show that Complainant was subjected to an adverse employment action due to his disability. Complainant did not oppose a practice prohibited under RCW 49.60, therefore, he cannot sustain a violation of retaliation.

FILING DATE: February 24, 2015

COMPLAINANT: Tim White
RESPONDENT: Yakima's Union Gospel Mission

PURSUANT TO RCW 49.60.240 YOUR COMPLAINT WAS ASSIGNED TO COMMISSION STAFF FOR REVIEW AND EVALUATION. THE RESULT OF THE INVESTIGATION IS SUMMARIZED BELOW.

YOUR COMPLAINT FILED WITH THE COMMISSION IS RECOMMENDED FOR CLOSURE DUE TO THE FOLLOWING REASON:

~~NO REASONABLE CAUSE: Timeliness and all other jurisdictional requirements have been met.~~
Investigation into Complainant's claim of different treatment/terms and conditions based on sex fails to show that Complainant was treated differently than similarly situated female employees.

EXPLANATION OF FINDING: A NO REASONABLE CAUSE FINDING means that there is not sufficient evidence to show that an unfair practice has occurred as defined by RCW 49.60, Washington State Law Against Discrimination. This Commission action does not preclude the Complainant from filing a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction [RCW 49.60.030(2)]. It should be noted that private civil actions must be filed in court within limited periods from the date of the alleged unfair practice.

CASE NAME: Tim White v. Yakima Union Gospel Mission

CASE #: 39ES-0731-14-5 EEOC #: 38G-2015-00489

1. I recommend closure of the above case based on a finding that: after an investigation into the facts of the case, there is No Reasonable Cause to conclude that discrimination took place.
2. The following information supports the recommendation: Complainant alleges discrimination in employment based on sex (male). Specifically, Complainant alleges that Respondent hired him as a ~~HUB worker.~~ Complainant states that Respondent only compensates male employees with room and board and the female employees receive monetary compensation in addition to the room and board.
3. Respondent articulated a legitimate, non-discriminatory reason for its actions; there are two sides to Respondent's facility, one side for males and one for females and children. Respondent provided evidence that HUB workers are residents of the shelter on the male side and are required to volunteer in order to have residency. Complainant is a live-in volunteer and not a paid employee. The Family Shelter side of Respondent business is for women and children only due to privacy concerns. The Family Shelter is operated by women only, and two of the four women who work on the female side of the shelter are required to live on-site to be available at all times for the women and children. These female employees are not residents and are paid employees.
4. Investigation into Complainant's claim of different treatment/terms and conditions based on sex fails to show that Complainant was treated differently than similarly situated female employees. Complainant is a volunteer. Complainant was not able to rebut Respondent's defense. Therefore, Complainant's claim does not meet the legal standard necessary to support an element of a discrimination claim based on sex.

The legal standard required to support the elements in a complaint of discrimination has not been met for the following reasons: The investigation did not show that Complainant was subjected to an adverse action.

EXPLANATION OF FINDING: A finding of No Reasonable Cause may be made without further investigation if the facts as stated in the complaint do not constitute an unfair practice, and means that there is not sufficient evidence to show that an unfair practice has occurred as defined by RCW 49.60, Washington State Law Against Discrimination [RCW 49.60.240(1)(a)]. Dear Daniela Saucedo Ceja,

The Washington State Human Rights Commission (WSHRC) is in receipt of your inquiry. After careful review of the information, the WSHRC has determined that your concerns do not meet the jurisdictional requirements for an investigation. The WSHRC has no jurisdiction over complaints submitted by independent contractors.

For this reason, there will be no follow up on this inquiry.

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Therefore, it is in your best interest not to submit anything unless requested by your investigator.

The Washington State Human Rights Commission (WSHRC) has no jurisdiction to investigate complaints against the following: employers with fewer than 8 employees; Native American tribes; the federal government; or complaints otherwise outside the WSHRC's statutory authority. This includes, but is not limited to, complaints in which the last date of harm occurred more than 6 months prior to the filing date of the complaint, or more than 2 years prior in the case of a state-employee whistle-blower retaliation claim.

Complaints that do not meet jurisdictional requirements, including complaints where the allegations of the complaint, if true, show no basis for commission action after preliminary evaluation, will not be accepted for investigation.

I want to file a charge of discrimination. I authorize the WSHRC to look into the discrimination I described in this Complaint Questionnaire.

I understand that if my claim does not meet jurisdictional requirements, it will not be accepted for investigation and that there will be no follow-up on this inquiry from the WSHRC.
